Presentationtitle:	Health and Volunteering in Borderline Greece
Short CV:	I was born in Kos and spent my early childhood in Australia, an experience that broadened my horizons from an early age. I hold a degree in Marketing and Management from Thessaloniki. Professionally, I have a long-standing career in journalism and media, serving as a news anchor and journalist for the Kos Municipal Radio and Television Station (kostv) and managing kostv.gr. Parallel to my professional path, I have dedicated over 35 years to serving my local community through volunteer organizations and associations. Highlighting my lifelong commitment to humanitarian service, I am honored to be the newly elected District Governor (President) of Lions Clubs International for Greece and Cyprus (District 117) for the 2026-2027 period. Through the Lions, we serve the needs of society, stepping in to support and provide aid wherever the state is unable to reach.
